Art Unit: 3661

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 27-28 are objected to because of the following informalities:

As per claims 27-28, both on line 1, "a lane keep control apparatus" should be "a lane keep control method". Further, on line 2 of both claims, after "wherein", "calculation" should be "the calculating" in order to avoid the antecedent basis problem. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-8, 15 and 21-22 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Matsumoto et al (patent no. 6708098).

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

As per claims 1-8, 15 and 21-22, the reason for rejection based upon the Matsumoto et al reference as set forth in the last office action is maintained and incorporated herein by reference.

Art Unit: 3661

In the amendment, applicant merely alleged that the Matsumoto et al reference does not teach the claimed calculation of a deceleration control variable on the basis of a state of tendency of a vehicular deviation from a traffic lane on which the vehicle is traveling. The examiner strongly disagrees with such allegation. Applicant's attention is directed to column 6, lines 56-67 of the Matsumoto et al reference in which it clearly teaches that the target brake hydraulic pressure (a deceleration controlled variable) is calculated based upon the state of the lane deviation flag (a state of a tendency of a vehicular deviation from a traffic lane) and as such it meets the claimed limitation as broadly recited.

4. Claims 9-14, 16-20 and 23-28 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
